

SAFETY BY THE NUMBERS.

At Saia, our company-wide commitment to safety really adds up. Just take a look at the numbers — you'll see how we're working around the clock to ensure that the safety of employees, customers and freight is always out front.

2200

Dockworkers, including dock supervisors.

4500

Total drivers in service nationwide.

350

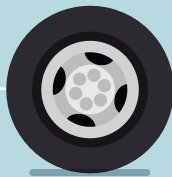

Driver-trainers on staff.

23

Safety-specific personnel.

100%

Since 2015, all new trailers feature proactive auto-fill tire technology.

300

Driver videos reviewed weekly to prevent future incidents on the road.

7 years

Average age of a Saia trailer.

5 years

Average age of a Saia tractor.

Every new driver receives 40+ hours of in-cab training, plus continuing education.

40+

48

Online training modules focused on safety and proper freight handling.

40+

New dockworkers spend 40+ hours of training alongside a mentor.

OVER 7000

Employees benefit from weekly pre-shift safety meetings, covering a range of current topics and issues.

400

Approximate number of weekly safety meetings hosted by a member of Saia's management team.

ZERO

Our company policy since 2010.

Zero cell phone usage (talking or texting) unless vehicle is in park.

Results that add up to safer roads for everyone.

32%

Percentage of safety-minded employees who have worked at the company for 10+ years.

35%

Percentage of claims reduction after the creation of our Quality Assurance Department.

7 TIMES

Awarded seven consecutive years by the American Trucking Association in the city and linehaul divisions.

15.3%

Percentage that our claims ratio improved for 2015 over the prior year.

99%

Percentage of shipments we're proud to handle entirely claims-free.